Join the League of Champions (LOC) Champion Program and Together We Will Make a Difference!

Mission: Be advocates for safety by inspiring and influencing leaders to commit, collaborate and take action to improve health and safety culture through awareness, education, promotion and recognition leading to safer construction workplaces in Ontario.

Vision: Inspiring leaders at every level to be health and safety champions

What does League of Champions (LOC) membership mean?

As a member, you will not only inspire leaders to be health and safety champions, but your organization will be recognized for promoting construction safety excellence.

Benefits of your membership include:

Networking Opportunities:

- Networking with major buyers of construction and other safety champions to share best practices, achieve excellence and inspire construction safety distinction.
- Sharing of vital information to assist all members to better their organizations and in turn their company's reputation as safety conscious.
- Members reaching out and supporting each other through common dedication to safety as well as through like-minded business practices.

Inspire Safety Excellence:

- Providing support and networking opportunities to move towards and achieve:
 - Certificate of Recognition (COR),
 - Health and Safety Excellence Program.
- Supporting Ontario's Safe Employer Program
- Regular webinar presentations featuring the Chief Prevention Office (CPO), other LOC, members, and safety professionals tabling best practices and leading-edge safety initiatives.
- The use of the LOC as a health and safety champion will drastically improve the safety culture in your organization and in turn may lead to an improved safety record and lower costs.

Recognition:

- A LOC Jersey as a symbol to promote safety excellence and commitment.
- Heightened media exposure and cross-promotion wherein your organization will be recognized for your health and safety commitment and achievement.
- The use of the LOC logo on your letterhead and promotional materials as part of your program to build and develop a culture of construction safety.
- Public promotion of your support via website and social media feeds.
- Your organization can obtain increased recognition via the LOC achievement awards.
- Opportunities to showcase your company to students and apprentices across the Province(s) in front of High Schools, Colleges, Universities, and the Government.
